One killed, many hurt in urban poll as popular pulse put to test

FIRST PHASE 64% electorate exercise right to franchise at 5,306 booths for elections to seven municipal corporations, 31 nagar parishads and 63 nagar panchayats in state

Subhas Patnaik

PATNA: One person was killed and dozens injured in sporadic incidents of violence that marred the urban local bodies' elections across Bihar on Sunday.

About 64% of the electorate exercised its right to franchise at 5,306 booths set up for elections to seven municipal corporations, 31 nagar parishads and 63 nagar panchayats, in which a total of 13,027 candidates are in the fray.

Being the first major electoral exercise after a massive victory of Grand Alliance (GA) in the November 2015 elections, the municipal elections are important in that they will provide an indication of the popular mood ahead of the 2019 general elections.

For, even though the civic polls are not contested on party symbols, political party of different parties plunged into the electoral arena in their individual capacity and procure the support of the rank and file of their respective political outfits.

According to the state election commission (SEC), more than 11,000 poll personnel, including armedJennifer, were deployed to ensure peaceful, free and fair polling. But the day witnessed malfunctioning of electronic voting machines, clashes between the two groups of contesting and subsequent damaging of EVMs.

"Police EVMs were promptly replaced with functional ones, while polling was rescheduled at few booths where EVMs were damaged by supporters of the contestants," a press communiqué from the SEC said.

Reports said one Vikram Raj, father of Diet member of the opposition in the state Assembly, was injured during post-poll violence.

"There was no report of any major untoward incident from Banka and Bhagalpur districts of this division."

In Nalanda subdivision of this district, 19 police were injured and one killed in violence, according to Police Commissioner Ashok Kumar Singh.

A youth identified as Ritu Raj was killed at a police station in Bhagalpur city on Saturday night by a mob.

Reports said police were engaged in a massive operation to stop the violence, and there was no report of any untoward incident from Banka and Bhagalpur districts of this division.

In Nalanda subdivision of this district, polling could not be held at booth number two of ward number three, located at GBCollege, following brick bat battle between two groups of people.

"The EVMs at the polling station were damaged by people involved in the clash," DIG eastern range, Vikas Yadav, said the polling in those booths would take place tomorrow.

A section of angry voters resorted to pelting of stones on a polling party as they found their names missing from the electoral roll.

Reports said voting at a booth number two of Shahpur, a suburb of Bhagalpur city, was held up for some time in the morning following allegations that many voters were missing from the list.

A youth identified as Ritu Raj was detained at a police station in Bhagalpur city.

Bhagalpur: SSP Manoj Kumar said it was suspected that the detained youth in order to give vent to his anger over missing names in voters list did the act. He was released later, he SSP added.

"Reports said police were engaged in a massive operation to stop the violence, and there was no report of any untoward incident from Banka and Bhagalpur districts of this division."

Patna: Over 64% of voters exercised their franchise in the first phase of urban local body (ULB) election held in 36 districts across the state on Sunday.

The ULB election was conducted in seven municipal corporations, 31 municipal councils and 63 nagar panchayats with 12,027 candidates trying their luck. The number of female candidates was more than the male contestants. Altogether 9,590 female candidates were in the fray against 3,337 male candidates in the first phase of election on Sunday.

According to official sources, 49,88,067 voters, including 22,32,697 females, exercised their franchise. Thirty-one complaints were registered with State Election Commission and all the cases were disposed of.

State election commissioner Asok Kumar Chaubey said the election passed off peacefully barring some stray incidents. Altogether 769 people were arrested and 31 vehicles seized.

An elderly man, Vikram Rai, whose son Dharmendra Rai is contesting from Manoharpur nagar panchayat in Saran district, succumbed to his injuries after he was allegedly thrashed by members of the opposition group.

At least 12 policemen were injured after the voters of Roop Nagar village under Saharsa police station pelted stones at them for allegedly working as agents of a particular candidate.

Policemen resorted to lathicharge in which around 12 villagers were seriously injured.

The villagers alleged that the police had fired several rounds to disperse the unruly mob. However, SDPO Subodh Kumar Biswas refuted reports of police firing. He said few anti-social elements were trying to disturb the poll process and had damaged the EVM machines of polling booth number 118 and 119 of ward 40. According to Biswas, heavy stone-pelting by the mob resulted in serious injury to a constable, Chandan Sah, who was hit in the right eye and was hospitalised. “His condition is critical,” said the SDPO.

In ward number 22 of Saharsa Municipal Council, a clash between the supporters of two candidates broke out at Mahavir Chowk. Gnaneshwar Choudhury, a candidate, accused the district administration officials of working in support of a candidate said to be close to a Bihar minister.

On the other hand, supporters of a candidate belonging to minority community alleged that the poll officials were discouraging and harassing them.

The SEC announced fresh election in ward 13 of Ara Municipal Corporation after one of the contestants, Bhagwati Devi, died before the election was to start.

Fresh election will also be conducted in booth number 10 of ward 11 of Samastipur Municipal Council and ward number 3 of Naugachhia Nagar Panchayat.
